Changes within living memory	• knowing how shops and the high street have changed over time • knowing and explaining the lives of significant people and how they lived	• knowing and explaining how knowledge and technology has changed our community and local area through a study of shops • understanding that knowledge shaped the way significant people thought and influenced what we know and do today Mary Anning, David Attenborough, Neil Armstrong, Mae Jemison, Bernard Harris Jr., Tim Peake	• knowing and explaining how, over time, technology had the power to change the way people lived their lives through shopping • knowing and explaining how significant people had the power and determination to change the way people thought and behaved. For example, Mae Jemison experienced racism, but became the first African America woman to become an astronaut • knowing and explaining how significant people, such as David Attenborough, have the power and determination to help us understand more about the incredible world we live in and how to care for it better	• knowing and explaining that in the past, people in power were not always chosen by the people • knowing and explaining that in the past, some women didn't always have the same rights or status as men – Mary Anning • knowing and explaining that sometimes people are not treated fairly
The lives of significant people (Mary Anning and David Attenborough)	• knowing and explaining how their local area changed
